

I oppose your plans to allow a company to own multiple outlets in the same community. This will allow a single company to control information going to that community. Mind control is exactly what dictatorships strive to do. Why are you trying to allow the same thing to happen?